IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.38485 of 2008
RAM NATH SINGH & ANR
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

2 15.10.2008 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

Petitioners have been taken into custody on 16.08.2008 on cancellation of the bail bond executed by them, since they failed to appear in the court below during the course of trial on 20.05.2008. There non-appearance coupled with their counsel did not facilitate examination of the witnesses who had turned up in this case. Though an explanation was sought to be offered but the trial court has disbelieved it. In view of the fact noted above, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners categorically states that the petitioners will no longer embark on any adventurism of this kind in future and shall cooperate in the trial by their presence now.

In above view of the matter and also keeping the fact in mind that non-appearance of the petitioners is on a specific date only let petitioners namely, Ram Nath Singh and Arun Singh, are being enlarged on bail afresh on furnishing bail bond of sum of Rs. 20,000/- (Twenty Thousand only) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Fast Track Court No. IV, Vaishali at Hajipur in connection with Vaishali P.S. Case No. 72 of 1987, (S. Tr. No.323/90 of 323A/90).

It is also clarified that if assurance given to the court is breached in any matter, the court below shall have liberty to take suitable action in this regard.
